About The Course

The course is a testament to the contemporary Northwest golfing experience blending the natural beauty of the area with pristine course conditions and demanding water features. Winding through a network of dense, native forests, and skirting a series of carefully preserved wetlands during the early part of the round, the course ultimately treats players to spectacular views of the Cascade Mountains as they make their way back to the clubhouse.

Recognized by Links Magazine for having among the "Best Conditions in the Pacific Northwest", Redmond Ridge is among the elite "must-play" facilities in the greater Seattle area. Golfers from around the region praise the course for its character and challenge that are packed into the par-70 layout.

Just a short drive from Seattle, The Golf Club at Redmond Ridge is a world-class property that provides guests with a consistently exceptional experience by offering championship golf, outstanding dining, and an uncompromising standard of service.
